

Fletcher Hotel-Restaurant De Wageningsche Berg*

The 4-star Fletcher Hotel-Restaurant De Wageningsche Berg is located in one of the loveliest parts of the Netherlands, in the middle of the forested area between the Utrecht Heuvelrug and the Lower Rhine. Because of its setting on the Wageningsche Berg, the views over the river, the water meadows and the Betuwe are truly stunning. The colourful botanical gardens of the Belmonte Aboretum are close to the hotel. This delightfully secluded location with excellent cycling and walking routes make the hotel the ideal base for a wonderfully relaxing break.

However, there's more than just beautiful nature in the surrounding area. Nearby cities Wageningen or Arnhem are great for an afternoon of shopping, a round of golf on the Heelsum or Edes golf course or take in one of the many attractions and museums.

The hotel has every amenity to ensure that both tourists who enjoy life and corporate guests have a resoundingly successful stay. The contemporary and friendly hotel has more than 108 luxury and spaciouly designed bedrooms, an attractive brasserie, culinary à la carte restaurant, fitness room/gym and 5 multifunctional meeting rooms for corporate events, receptions and celebrations with a capacity of up to 1500 guests.
