

International Plant Protection Convention

Protecting the world's plant resources from pests

Protecting the world's plant resources from pests

International Plant Protection Convention
Protecting the world's plant resources from pests

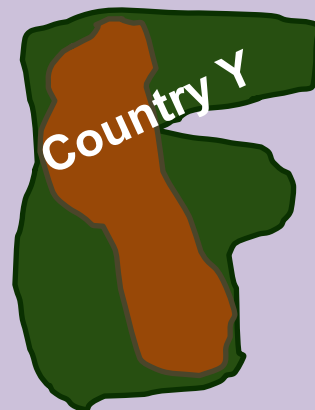

A World Without Market Access & Trade

Pests travel on exported commodities

Pests destroy plant resources and spread

Global food insecurity

A World Without Pest Control

IPPC Historical Timeline

Protecting the world's plant resources from pests

12 Country Agreement

Phylloxera vastatrix* Convention

1881

IPPC text Revised

1951

1979

Original Text Adopted

1952 Plant Health Agreement

182 Contracting Parties, RPPOs

WTO and CBD recognized

1997

2015

IPPC revised

WTO – SPS Agreement (1995)

International Plant Protection Convention
Protecting the world's plant resources from pests

IPPC - Protecting plant resources

4

STRATEGIC OBJECTIVES

Global Food Security

Protect Environment

Facilitate Safe Trade

Develop Capacity

IPPC - Protecting your Plant Resources

4

CORE ACTIVITIES

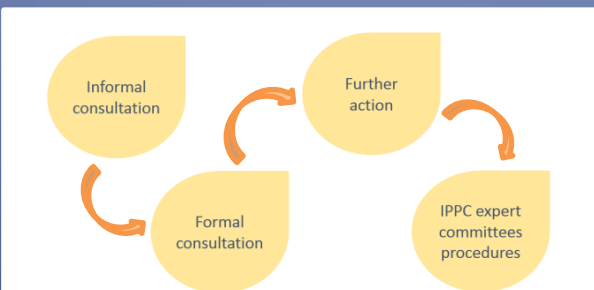

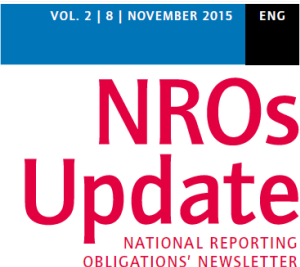

Standard Setting

Belize
Ghana
Fiji
Lithuania
Viet Nam

IPPC Official Contact Point

National Reporting

Dispute Settlement

Capacity Building

Trade in Forest

E-learning Course on trade in forest commodities and the role of phytosanitary measures

International Plant Protection Convention
Protecting the world's plant resources from pests

IPPC – Overview of what we do

Protect Environment and Biodiversity

Protect Plant Resources

Protect Industry & Consumers

Facilitate Safe Trade

International Plant Protection Convention
Protecting the world's plant resources from pests

Protect Farmers

International Plant Protection Convention
Protecting the world's plant resources from pests

IPPC Structure

Partners

Regional Plant
Protection Organizations

Convention on Biological Diversity

Administrative

Commission on Phytosanitary Measures(CPM)
182 contracting parties

CPM Bureau
7 Regional Representatives

Standards
Committee (SC)

Subsidiary Body
for Dispute Settlement
(SBDS)

Capacity Development
Committee (CDC)

Various Technical Panels, Expert Working Groups, Focus Groups, Workshops, Technical Consultations to deliver the CPM work programme and to plan strategically

IPPC Secretariat
hosted by FAO, Rome Italy

Contracting parties considerations

3

CONSIDERATIONS

Contracting party team

Who

Policy makers (Public Sector)

NPPO's

Private sector

Civil society

Experts

Contracting party team

What

Identify:

Role

Responsibility

Information Needed/Shared:

National Interests

CPM Results

Contracting party team

How

Set national positions

Participation in IPPC meetings

Develop team capacity

Key Points – IPPC is for you!

International Plant Protection Convention

*Protecting the world's plant
resources
from pests*

Why IPPC is Important to You

4 OBJECTIVES

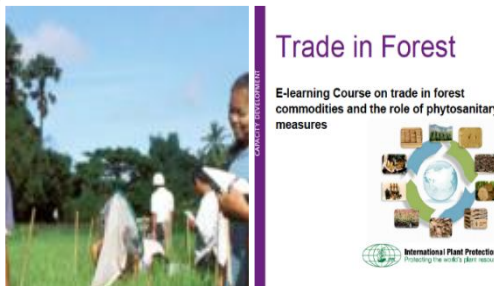

Food Security

Environment Protection

Facilitate Safe Trade

Capacity Building

Capacity Building

IPPC has useful Resources

www.phytopsanitary.info

www.ippc.int

Get Involved & Participate

Country Team

Prepare & participate in CPM

Make interventions

Raise issues

IPPC working Groups

Promote NPPO's Work

International Plant Protection Convention
Protecting the world's plant resources from pests

Questions/Concerns - Contact Us

International Plant Protection Convention Secretariat (IPPC)

AGPP - FAO, Viale delle Terme di Caracalla,

00153 Rome, Italy. Tel: +39-06-5705-4812

E-mail: IPPC@fao.org

For further information, please visit:

www.ippc.int

www.phytosanitary.info

Thank you!

