The four-star NH Jousten hotel in Buenos Aires is located in the city center, just a few steps away from numerous points of interest. You can easily reach the pedestrian street Calle Florida, Galerías Pacífico shopping mall, Puerto Madero Docks, Plaza de Mayo, and many business, financial, historical, and entertainment sites. Perfect for holidays and business, the NH Jousten hotel is an emblematic building from the early 1900s, close to Puerto Madero.

The charm and classic styling of the old structure combine with functional modern elements to create a welcoming and relaxing atmosphere to make guests feel at home. People enjoy the contrasting ambience that brings the distant past into the modern era. The hotel offers 84 guest rooms, with five suites at the top of the building offering a magnificent panoramic view of the city. Occupying an entire floor of the NH Jousten, the Presidential Suite has a private living room and a large bathroom with a Jacuzzi. For your relaxation, we also have a fitness center with exercise machines on the first floor.

The hotel restaurant Aralar serves a wide variety of delicious local and international dishes, with a seasonal menu that brings you the freshest foods all year long. Our extensive wine list offers the perfect wine to match your meal. The restaurant also has a separate dining area ideal for private business lunches and dinners, with a maximum serving capacity of 20 people.
